

'Hear my virtual voice'

With the virtual world now being key in how we are interacting with others, we are more than ever needing to get our voices heard in a way that is engaging of others and impactful. This new world brings challenges in us needing to be more concise, focused on key messages and comfortable with techniques for getting into discussions.

Attend this interactive 90-minute session to discover:

- ✓ Impact of our words, voice and body language
- ✓ Techniques for being concise and influential
- ✓ Tips and strategies to get into virtual discussions
- ✓ Putting forward opposing views in an engaging way

These can be tailored for small or large groups

