

Presentation Skills in Today's World

Purpose:

To increase your effectiveness and confidence when presenting both face to face and when using virtual platforms.

Objectives:

- Gaining skills to build confidence in presenting (both virtually & face to face)
- Knowing and engaging your audience to ensure buy-in
- Galvanizing your audience into action - without PowerPoint
- Responding to difficult questions and challenges

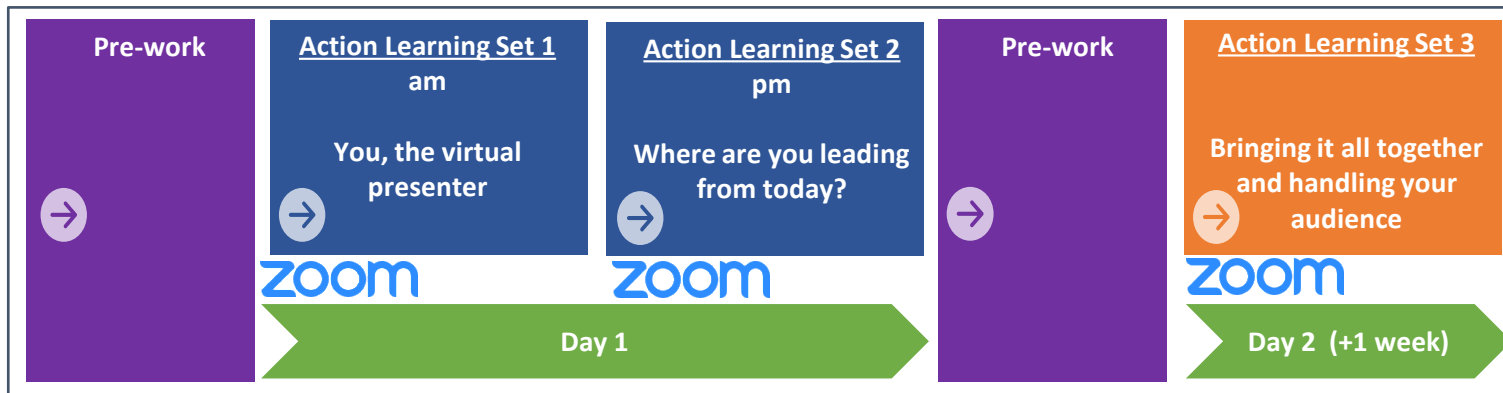

Approach:

- ✓ Input on tools, approaches & practical strategies
- ✓ Highly interactive with many opportunities for practise
- ✓ Facilitated and group discussions to share ideas and solutions within the group
- ✓ Q&A to support specific areas of interest

Programme Structure:

We will work together over three x 2hr virtual Action Learning Sets and you are also asked to engage in two x 60-90 minute Pre-work Activities. Activities range from reading articles, watching video clips and conducting work-based activities. The work you do up front will set you up in readiness for the Action Learning Sets.

Maximum 12 people per session:
ALS3 will be split in 2 – to allow greater feedback sharing
